Where: Exchange Bar (TBC)

When: 16th February 2012

Time: 6pm for 6:30pm start

Come and be a part of the LRSA's first SHARE event.

The evening will be in the form of a Pecha Kucha. 'What's that?!?' you ask... well simply, twenty slides, twenty seconds each.

The Pecha Kucha night was first developed in Tokyo as a night for young designers to come together and share their ideas and concepts. Drawing its name from the Japanese term for the sound of "chit chat", it rests on a presentation format that is based on a simple idea: 20 images x 20 seconds. It's a format that makes presentations concise, and keeps things moving at a rapid pace.

Local architects, practices and students are invited to share their projects, past and present, ideas, theories, passions, or favourite buildings in this quick fire format.

If you would like to take part all you have to do is turn up with your twenty slides on a memory stick on the night and be prepared to present. The atmosphere will be relaxed. It is about sharing our experiences and passions as architects rather than judging each other.

A new networking event for local architects, those working in practice and students, run by the Leicestershire and Rutland Society of Architects. The monthly event aims to provide an opportunity for local practices to come together and socialise. Events will take the format of presentations, talks, exhibitions, tours of local buildings and drinks.
